Preamble

This document constitutes the current running keyword register for the ERES Institute for New Age Cybernetics, organized under the Talonics nomenclature system. Talonics refers to the symbolic-semantic resonance architecture — the semiotic overlay of keyboard/finger symbolic resonance within the HFVN reference architecture. Every term listed here carries operational meaning within the ERES framework and is anchored to the foundational equation C=R×P/M (Cybernetics = Resource × Purpose ÷ Method).

The glossary is organized into eleven functional categories reflecting the architecture of New Age Cybernetics: Foundational Systems, Governance and Constitutional, Economic and Financial, Environmental and Ecological, Identity and Security, Scientific and Measurement, Healthcare and Human Development, Smart City and Infrastructure, Consciousness and Interface, Legal and Certification, and Epistemological and Methodological.

Established February 2012. Three eras: CyberRAVE (pre-1997–2007), SaleBuilders (1997–2012), ERES Institute (2012–present). Foundational principle: “Don’t hurt yourself. Don’t hurt others. Build for generations to come.”
